

IDTA Professional dance teacher's qualifications
@Pineapple dance studios

About the Qualification you will receive:

The International Dance Teachers Association (IDTA) accredits the qualification you will gain from attending these courses. The IDTA is a worldwide recognised body with establishments such as gyms, health clubs and schools accepting this qualification as professional dance instructor status. For more information about the IDTA visit www.idta.co.uk. Once qualified all students are invited into the Dance-Training Dream Team Network where you are given support and advice with the development of your careers and dance school businesses. Numerous ex graduates of Dance-Training now have established successful dance businesses, won awards, adjudicated at competitions, hosted international events and has seen accelerated growth in their dancing careers.

Exam:

The exam will take place approximately 4-6 weeks after the training.

Revision Support:

At Dance- Training we support all of our students from start to finish of their learning journey and are always on hand to help with any queries, worries and concerns you may have.

The course includes:

- All course materials
- Revision support
- Face to face Training
- Examination fees
- Stationary
- Great opportunities to network with other dancers

Course venue:

All courses are run at Pineapple Dance studios.

Criteria:

Because of the intensity of the course we have very strict criteria for all our students:

- They must be 18 or over
- They must have 3 or more years dance experience
- They must be willing to work hard for 6 weeks solid

Course options:

At Dance-Training we recognise that all learning styles are different, some like to work with a team around them and some like to work 121. You can now choose the best option for you.

- One on One training:

1day intensive + Revision Support + Exam

- Group Courses:
